	BUILDING FOR WHAT COMES NEXT.
	With over three decades of experience behind us, we look ahead with the same discipline that shaped our journey, pursuing distinctive locations, thoughtful design and developments created to hold their value for generations. 30+ YEARS BEHIND US. THE NEXT CHAPTER AHEAD.

MORE THAN THIRTY YEARS.
MANY NEIGHBOURHOODS.
ONE INTENT.

It started with 46,000 sq. ft. in Nalasopara. What followed was a journey through neighbourhoods, generations and changing ideas of what a home should be.

Arham Realty's story began in 1994 with a modest development in Nalasopara and a straightforward belief: good homes should be dependable, thoughtfully planned and made for the people who live in them. Three decades later, that belief continues to shape the way we approach every opportunity.

From Nalasopara and Bhayandar in the early years to established addresses across Mumbai, each project has brought a new setting, a new set of challenges and a deeper understanding of the city we work in. The places may have changed, the scale may have grown, but the intent has stayed familiar — to build with care, to build with purpose and to leave something that continues to matter after the keys are handed over.

Experience, Carried Forward. Perspective, Moving Ahead.

Today, our work spans a growing portfolio across Mumbai and Thane, with a pipeline that takes the same experience into the next chapter.

The business remains grounded in the values that shaped its beginning quality, dependability and a genuine respect for the people and communities we build for. At the same time, a new generation is bringing its own perspective to the business, building upon what has come before rather than moving away from it.

Because progress does not mean starting over. Sometimes, it means taking what has worked for thirty years and seeing where it can go next.

Over Three Decades of Experience. A Perspective for What Comes Next.

- OUR STORY

FROM A FIRST HOME
TO A GROWING CITY STORY.

The journey began in Nalasopara in 1994. What followed was a steady move across neighbourhoods, generations and increasingly complex forms of development.

A Beginning in Nalasopara: Vardhaman Park marked the beginning of our promoter's real estate journey, a 46,000 sq. ft. development started in 1994 and was completed in 1996.

The years that followed took us through Nalasopara, Bhayandar, Mulund and the western suburbs, building homes in neighbourhoods that were themselves growing and changing.

Finding Our Place in Mumbai, By the early 2000s, the journey had reached established Mumbai addresses across Kandivali, Worli, Bandra, Khar and Santacruz. Each location brought its own character and challenges, from dense residential precincts to some of the city's more prominent addresses.

These projects gradually expanded our experience while keeping the focus close to the people and communities we were building for.

A New Chapter in Redevelopment: The following decade brought a deeper involvement in redevelopment, with projects such as Dakshata CHSL in Chembur and Pramod CHSL in Ghatkopar East.

Today, that experience continues through projects across Chembur, Andheri East and other established neighbourhoods, alongside a growing pipeline for the years ahead.

The journey has moved forward, but the intent remains familiar to understand the place, respect the people and build something that belongs there.

- OUR STORY

FROM NALASOPARA TO MUMBAI'S ISLAND CITY

The journey began in 1994 with Vardhaman Park at Nalasopara East, a 46,000 sq. ft. development completed and handed over within two years. The years that followed saw a growing presence across Nalasopara, Mira Road, Bhayander and Kandivali, building communities alongside Mumbai's expanding suburbs.	The move into Mumbai brought a new scale of development. Shubhda Tower in Worli, completed in 2005, marked a significant milestone at 4 Lakh sq. ft., our largest completed project at the time. Developments across Bandra, Khar and Santacruz followed, establishing a presence across some of Mumbai's most sought-after neighbourhoods.	The years since have been defined by redevelopment and a more considered approach to urban living. From Dakshata in Chembur and Pramod in Ghatkopar to Premia in Tilak Nagar and Anvaya in Andheri, each development reflects an evolving understanding of location, design and the needs of modern Mumbai.

The practice moved into South Mumbai and Western Suburbs, with developments in Worli, Bandra, Khar and Santacruz. Shubhda Tower, completed in 2005, marked a significant step up in scale at 4 Lakh sq. ft.	With Dakshata in Chembur and Pramod in Ghatkopar, our work established as a dependable redevelopment partner for housing societies rooted in central suburbs.	Anvaya in Andheri East reflects how our approach has evolved with the city combining connectivity, considered design and spaces made for modern living. Premia Tower 'A' was finished in 2023, a residential tower with premium finishes and excellent connectivity. Tower 'B' & 'C' are now underway on the same estate.	A growing pipeline across Bandra West, Mahalaxmi, Borivali West and East, Malad East and Bhandup East carries over three decades of experience into the next skyline with the same intent to build thoughtfully, and build for generations.

- Our Leadership

FROM BUILDING MATERIALS TO BUILDING ADDRESSES.

Mr. Sanjay Hirji Savla Promoter / Managing Director

Mr. Sanjay Savla began his professional journey in 1982 in the construction materials and logistics business, gaining first-hand experience of the industry from the ground up. In 1994, he entered the real estate landscape of Mumbai and Thane, investing in projects associated with Mr. Purshottam Bansi, including ventures such as Oricon Developers, Global Oricon Developers, Pooja Developers, Pooja Builders, Divine Developers, Pooja Builders & Developers, Shree Sainath Developers and Sai Dhara Constructions; an association through which he gained a deeper understanding of land, development and the many facets of the real estate business, laying the foundation for his own journey in the industry.

Over the next three decades, he steadily built his presence across Mumbai and the MMR region through a measured and disciplined approach, guided by a focus on the right location, thoughtful planning, quality execution and value that endures. Today, his experience and vision continue to guide the business as it enters its next chapter, carrying forward a legacy built on trust, relationships and a long-term commitment to quality.

"Three decades of experience, one enduring philosophy — build thoughtfully and build to endure."

A NEW PERSPECTIVE ON WHAT WE BUILD

Mr. Karan Sanjay Savla Co-Promoter / Chief Executive Officer

Mr. Karan Savla represents the next generation of the business, combining a strong foundation in civil engineering, real estate development and management with a contemporary understanding of Mumbai's evolving urban landscape. His academic journey spans a Diploma in Civil Engineering from Thakur Polytechnic, Mumbai, a B.Tech and MBA (MBA.Tech) from Mukesh Patel School of Technology Management & Engineering, Mumbai, and an MSc in Real Estate Development from the University of Westminster, London, bringing together engineering, business and global real estate perspectives.

Having joined the business in 2022, he leads its day-to-day legal, sales, marketing and technical functions, carrying forward the values, discipline and experience established over three decades. Working alongside a legacy built across generations, he continues to contribute to the company's expansion across Mumbai and the MMR region, with a focus on thoughtful development and long-term value.

"Grounded in experience. Looking ahead with a new perspective."

A LEGACY OF TRUST

BEHIND THE NUMBERS

Mr. Prakash Shivji Visaria

Non-Executive Director

Mr. Prakash Visaria's association with Mr. Sanjay Savla dates back to 1992, beginning in the construction materials and logistics business. Over more than three decades, he has remained a trusted presence through the business's evolution and its transition into real estate.

He serves today as a Non-Executive Director on the boards of certain group companies, bringing a depth of institutional understanding and continuity to the organisation. Alongside this, he oversees the day-to-day administrative operations of the business, including vendor coordination and staff management, lending a steady and trusted hand to its continued growth.

"Over Three decades of trust. Experience that continues forward."

A LEGACY OF KNOWLEDGE THAT CONTINUES TO INSPIRE

Mr. Purshottam Gobindram Bansi

Mentor

Mr. Purshottam Bansi belongs to a generation that helped build modern Mumbai, beginning his professional journey in the post-Partition era as the nation was laying the foundations of its new built environment. A Civil Engineering graduate from the Victoria Jubilee Technical Institute (VJTI), University of Bombay, in 1958, he went on to specialise in marine construction engineering, building a career spanning more than 40 years as a Contractor, Builder and Developer, including as a Class 1 Contractor for Government projects. He served as Chairman of the Builders' Association of India from 1991 to 1992, was a Special Executive Magistrate from 1981 to 1989, became a Chartered Engineer in 1989, and was recognised as a Life Fellow of the Indian Water Works Association in 1988.

It was this depth of experience that made him an important early mentor to Mr. Sanjay Savla, who entered real estate as an investor in 1994, and later to Mr. Karan Savla, who joined the business in 2022, offering both an invaluable understanding of construction, development and the discipline required to build in Mumbai.

"A lifetime spent building knowledge, an influence carried across generations."

A WELL-CONNECTED ADDRESS, WITH THE CITY MOVING CLOSER

Tilak Nagar sits at an important intersection of Mumbai's eastern suburban network, with suburban rail, road and metro connectivity bringing Chembur, Kurla, BKC and the wider city within convenient reach. The area benefits from access to both Tilak Nagar and Chembur railway stations, while the Eastern Express Highway and Sion – Panvel Highway provide strong road connections across Mumbai and the MMR.

The neighbourhood's connectivity has gained another significant layer with Metro Line 2B. The line now extends to Chembur, creating an increasingly integrated network connecting Chembur with BKC, Kurla, Bandra and the western suburbs, while also linking with the suburban railway and monorail systems.

With major road and transit infrastructure continuing to strengthen the eastern suburbs, Premia 'B' & 'C' are positioned within a locality where everyday connectivity is already established and the wider network continues to evolve.

A WELL-CONNECTED ADDRESS IN CHEMBUR

Tilak Nagar has long been valued for its central position within Mumbai's eastern suburbs, with multiple modes of public transport within easy reach. The proximity of Tilak Nagar and Chembur railway stations, together with the Monorail and the growing Metro Line 2B network, gives residents convenient access across the city. Major road corridors including the Eastern Express Highway, Eastern Freeway and Sion–Panvel Highway further strengthen the neighbourhood's road connectivity.

As Chembur continues to evolve as a multi-modal transit hub, the opening of the Chembur Metro station has added another layer of connectivity, creating a close interchange between Metro, suburban rail and Monorail services. For a residential neighbourhood with an established community and everyday retail at the doorstep, this combination of existing infrastructure and expanding connectivity adds to the enduring appeal of the address.

WHERE SOUTH MUMBAI MEETS THE CITY'S NEXT CONNECTIVITY STORY

Sir Pochkhanawala Road places Shubhda Tower within a part of Worli where established neighbourhoods meet some of Mumbai's most significant recent infrastructure. The Coastal Road has already strengthened movement between Worli, Haji Ali and South Mumbai, while Metro Line 3 and nearby railway stations add further public-transport connectivity. The Haji Ali interchange also provides access towards Mahalaxmi and the wider city network.

The transformation continues beyond the existing network. Ongoing and planned improvements around Worli, Haji Ali and Mahalaxmi are steadily strengthening east-west and north-south movement, bringing key commercial, residential and cultural districts into closer reach. For an address on Pochkhanawala Road, that means the advantage is not only where it sits today, but how the surrounding city continues to connect around it.

A PROJECT FROM KANDIVALI'S EARLY REDEVELOPMENT YEARS

Navtarun CHSL belongs to an important period in Kandivali's growth, when established residential neighbourhoods were beginning to take shape alongside Mumbai's wider rehabilitation movement. Its location on Mathuradas Road places it within a well-connected part of Kandivali West, with the railway station close by and Metro Line 2A adding a newer layer of suburban connectivity. Mathuradas Road is approximately 1 km by road from Kandivali station, while the surrounding Dahanukarwadi area is within easy reach of the Line 2A stations.

The project reflects an early chapter in rehabilitation-led development, where redevelopment was not simply about replacing structures, but about bringing formal housing into the changing fabric of Mumbai's neighbourhoods.

Kandivali Railway Station and Metro Line 2A provide strong local connectivity, while S.V. Road, Link Road and the Western Express Highway connect the neighbourhood to the wider city. Metro Line 2A already links Kandivali West with Dahisar and Andheri West, strengthening east-west and north-south movement across the western suburbs. The next chapter of connectivity is also taking shape along Mumbai's western edge. The proposed Mumbai Coastal Road North is planned to extend the coastal corridor through the northern suburbs, with the alignment passing through the Kandivali-Gorai-Dahisar belt and incorporating major elevated stretches, interchanges and connections towards Dahisar and beyond. Over time, this wider infrastructure network is expected to add another layer of connectivity to the western suburbs.

A NEIGHBOURHOOD ON THE RISE
Pooja Park came at a time when Mira Road was moving through an important phase of residential expansion. With the suburban railway already providing a crucial link towards Mumbai and the road network connecting the area to Dahisar, the Western Express Highway and the wider western suburbs, the locality was steadily becoming a practical choice for families seeking accessible homes beyond the traditional city limits. Metro Line 9 is being developed as an extension from Dahisar East towards Mira-Bhayandar, creating a new rapid-transit connection between the suburb, the Western Express Highway, Metro Line 7 and Metro Line 2A. The corridor is designed to strengthen public transport access and reduce dependence on road travel as the region continues to grow. The area's connectivity has strengthened further with Metro Line 9, now operational between Dahisar East and Kashigaon, just over a kilometre from Mira Road. The line connects the suburb to Metro Line 7 and Metro Line 2A, with the next stretch toward Bhandup currently undergoing testing ahead of commissioning.

AN ADDRESS FROM THE EARLY YEARS

Sai Dhara CHSL belongs to an important chapter in Nalasopara’s residential story, when the suburb was steadily taking shape as a housing destination for Mumbai’s expanding communities. Its combination of residential homes and ground-floor retail reflects the practical character of the developments of that period, creating a place where every day needs could remain close to home.

Today, Nalasopara East continues to benefit from its connection to the Western Railway network, with Nalasopara station serving as the principal rail link for the area and local bus routes providing access within the eastern suburb.

WHERE THE JOURNEY BEGAN

Vardhaman Park stands as an early chapter in the story, a residential development undertaken when Nalasopara East was still taking shape as a destination for growing families. Its location on Tulinj Road places it within an established residential network, with Nalasopara Railway Station providing access to Mumbai and the wider Western Railway corridor.

Today, the Vasai-Virar region continues to evolve as an important part of the wider MMR, with expanding road, rail and regional connectivity supporting its growth. For us, however, Vardhaman Park represents something more personal: the address where a real estate journey that began in 1994 first took shape.

	THE ADDRESS EVERY MUMBAIKAR DESIRES
	Pali Hill has long occupied a rare place in Mumbai’s imagination, an established residential enclave where privacy, prestige and proximity to the city come together. Nargis Dutt Road places the development within this distinctive setting, surrounded by the character of Pali Hill and the wider Bandra neighbourhood, an address long associated with Mumbai’s film, business and cultural circles. The location is equally defined by its connectivity. Linking Road, S.V. Road, the Western Express Highway and the Bandra – Worli Sea Link provide established road access, while Bandra and Khar Road railway stations serve the Western Railway network. Metro Line 2B is being developed through Bandra, providing another future layer of east-west connectivity and interchange with other major Metro corridors. The next chapter of connectivity is already taking shape along Mumbai's western waterfront. The northern extension of the Coastal Road is progressing from Versova towards Dahisar and beyond, with planned connections around the Bandra–Carter Road stretch. The Bandra–Versova Sea Link, forming part of this wider coastal network, is also under construction and is expected to strengthen north-south movement along the western seafront. For a Pali Hill address, the proposition ultimately comes down to rarity, a limited neighbourhood, a highly established social ecosystem, exceptional city connectivity and, from the upper levels, the possibility of looking out towards the Arabian Sea. * Distances and travel times are approximate and subject to traffic and route conditions. 	Borivali West offers a rare combination of established connectivity and an open western outlook. With Link Road and S.V. Road providing strong north–south access, Borivali Railway Station connecting the neighbourhood across the Western Railway network, and Metro Line 2A running along Link Road, the location is well placed for both everyday travel and movement across the western suburbs. The future connectivity story is equally compelling. The Mumbai Coastal Road North is progressing towards the northern suburbs, with the planned alignment passing through Gorai, including a dedicated Gorai Interchange and connections towards Dahisar and beyond. The broader corridor is intended to provide a high-capacity alternative to existing north-south routes and ultimately extend coastal connectivity towards Bhayandar. The development also benefits from its proximity to well-established social infrastructure, including the renowned Don Bosco School in Borivali, adding to the neighbourhood’s long-standing residential appeal. For residents, the setting adds another dimension. From the upper levels, the development is positioned to capture open views towards Gorai, the Arabian Sea and the Global Vipassana Pagoda, bringing a sense of openness and calm that is increasingly rare within Mumbai’s dense urban fabric. * Distances and travel times are approximate and subject to traffic and route conditions. The Western Express Highway and S.V. Road ensure smooth access across the western suburbs, while Borivali Railway Station connects the area to both suburban and interstate rail networks. The next major infrastructure upgrade shaping the region is the Thane – Borivali Twin Tunnel, currently under construction beneath Sanjay Gandhi National Park. This 11.85 Kms. twin-tunnel corridor will connect the Western Express Highway in Borivali to Ghodbunder Road in Thane, significantly reducing travel distance and easing cross-city congestion between the eastern and western suburbs. With strong existing connectivity and major infrastructure developments underway, Borivali East continues to evolve as a well-connected residential hub with long-term growth potential. * Distances and travel times are approximate and subject to traffic and route conditions. 	A SOUTH MUMBAI ADDRESS, WITH THE CITY MOVING CLOSER Mahalaxmi sits at an unusual intersection of established South Mumbai and the city's newest infrastructure. The Coastal Road has already strengthened access towards Haji Ali, Worli and Marine Drive, while Atal Setu provides a direct connection towards Navi Mumbai and the wider MMR. Metro Line 3 has added another layer of connectivity, with Mahalaxmi station linking the neighbourhood to BKC, the airport and South Mumbai. The next phase is already taking shape around Jacob Circle and Mahalaxmi. Two major bridge projects are being developed to strengthen the missing road link between Saat Rasta/Jacob Circle, Mahalaxmi and Haji Ali. he 639 Mtrs. flyover towards Dr. E. Moses Road is intended to complete the Mahalaxmi – Haji Ali connection. Per BMC's stated targets, the two bridges are expected to reduce the existing journey from roughly 25-45 minutes to around 5-7 minutes, with completion targeted for October 2026.. A separate 803 Mtrs. cable-stayed bridge, the BMC's first cable-stayed structure over railway tracks will connect Saat Rasta with Mahalaxmi across the railway tracks, also targeted for completion in October 2026. The neighbourhood is also moving towards greater multimodal connectivity. The Mahalaxmi Multimodal Connectivity Project is nearing completion, linking the railway station, Metro Line 3 and Monorail through an elevated pedestrian connection.
